February 27. The car park includes static display of vintage cars, an amphitheatre with a seating capacity of 3,000, a sandpit for children to play besides an enclosure for tortoise and rabbits. It is a result of the initiative taken up by Bommanahalli BBMP Corporator Ram Mohan Raju.

City professor invited for meeting in Paris

Prof M Ramachandra Mohan, Dean, Faculty of Science and Engineering, Bangalore University is invited to attend the upcoming Intergovernmental Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services meeting from April 28 to May 4 in Paris, France, as observer on important plenary session in France.
Prof M. Ramachandra Mohan has been nominated as member of Committee for the Purpose of Experiments on Animals by Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change

CPCSEA member
Prof M Ramachandra Mohan, senior professor, Department of Zoology, Bangalore University, has been appointed a member of the Committee for the Purpose of Control and Supervision of Experiments on Animals for three years from June 12, 2018.