What is the FSIN?

The Food Security Information Network (FSIN) is a global initiative co-sponsored by FAO, WFP and IFPRI to strengthen food and nutrition security information systems for producing reliable and accurate data to guide analysis and decision-making.

FSIN serves as a neutral technical platform for exchanging expertise, knowledge and best practices, developing harmonized methods and tools, and facilitating capacity development on food and nutrition security measurement and analysis.

KEY FSIN ACHIEVEMENTS

Network of practitioners counting 1000+ members from 98 countries

Dedicated, interactive website established as a knowledge management and news sharing platform

Resilience Measurement TWG established and its technical products widely referenced

Measuring Food and Nutrition Security TWG established to advise on FNS indicators

6 Technical Papers on Resilience Measurement

(<http://www.fsincop.net/topics/resilience-measurement/outupts/en/>)

1 Technical Paper on Food Price Databases (<http://www.fsincop.net/resource-centre/detail/en/c/276428/>) (<http://www.fsincop.net/resource-centre/detail/en/c/276428/>)
